ABOUT PHILIP GLASS

A prolific composer of operas, symphonies, concertos, and soundtracks, and a major collaborator with artists ranging from Twyla Tharp to Allen Ginsberg, Woody Allen to David Bowie, and Leonard Cohen to Godfrey Reggio, Philip Glass has had an extraordinary and unprecedented impact upon the musical and intellectual life of his times.

Celebrating his 75th birthday, Glass is the co-curator and featured artist for the Armory's 2012 Tune-In Music Festival, which will include his iconic work, Music in Twelve Parts, an evening with long time friend Patti Smith, a world premiere commission with Hal Willner, and many special guests, illustrating how a composer's life informs the artistic lives of others.

ABOUT HERZOG & DE MEURON

Renowned for their imagination, virtuosity, and capacity to astonish, Herzog & de Meuron is the Pritzker Prize-winning practice behind the Armory's historic and innovative renovation plans.

Jacques Herzog and Pierre de Meuron established their practice in Basel, Switzerland in 1978. The partnership has grown over the years to an international team working on projects that range from the small scale of a private home to the large scale of urban design.

Herzog & de Meuron utilize innovative construction and new materials and techniques for their projects around the world including Tate Modern in London, CaixaForum in Madrid, Schaulager/Laurenz Foundation in Basel, Elbphilharmonie in Hamburg, National Stadium (Bird's Nest) in Beijing, Prada Aoyama in Tokyo and the de Young Museum in San Francisco.

ABOUT PARK AVENUE ARMORY

Park Avenue Armory is a not-for-profit organization whose mission is to revitalize one of America's historic treasures as a dynamic alternative arts space unlike any other. Part palace, part industrial shed, the Armory fills a critical void in the cultural ecology of New York by enabling artists to create, and the public to experience, unconventional work that cannot be mounted in traditional performance halls and museums.
